

LANCASHIRE TEACHING HOSPITALS NHS FOUNDATION TRUST

ROYAL PRESTON HOSPITAL

CLINICAL FELLOW IN NEUROSURGERY

REF NO: MS997

An excellent opportunity has arisen for a Clinical Fellow in Neurosurgery, for a period of 12 months, to start as soon as possible. Based at the Royal Preston Hospital.

Lancashire Teaching Hospitals NHS Trust forms one of the major acute trusts in the North West with all of the usual specialties on site, as well as being a Tertiary Centre for Lancashire and South Cumbria in the Departments of Neurosciences, Nephrology, Oncology, Plastic Surgery and Burns. Undergraduate medical student teaching commenced in Oct 2003. We offer the full range of acute outpatient and inpatient services to the 380,000 people living in Central Lancashire. The Neurosurgery department serves a population of 1.68 million.

The department is staffed by 7 Consultants, 4 Specialist Registrars, 1 Research registrar, 3 Trust Registrars, 1 Senior Clinical Fellow, 4 Clinical Fellow – SHO grade (including this post) and 4 Senior House Officers (ST1-3).

Although this is not a formal training post, the post will allow full opportunity for training in a structured fashion similar to recognised training posts. Please see Job description for full details.

You will either be a resident worker or be eligible for Home Office Tier 2 sponsorship.

This working pattern is presently under review to ensure compliance within EWTD. Contracts will be offered to include the appropriate banding within the Band 1 range of allowances once the rota is finalised.

To apply you must submit a covering letter and a completed Application Form together with two copies of your C.V, Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form, Copy of Passport and Current Visa Stamp. Please note that if CV's are submitted without all of these required documents, the application will not be considered for shortlisting.

Please forward your completed application form together with two copies of your CV, (by post only) to Pauline Knight, Medical Staffing Officer, Chorley & South Ribble District General Hospital, Preston Road, Chorley, Lancashire, PR7 1PP.
